THE TREASURY "LOCK UP."

Since the Democratic party came into power it has persued a system of alleged economy by which there has been withdrawn from circulation some three hundred and forty millions of dollars and this without the slightest public necessity or legal warrant. The following circular tells the story in a compact

OFFICE OF HARNEY FISK & SONS.) BANKERS IN GOVERNMENT BONDS No 28., Nassua St.

New York, July 27., 1887 .- The situation is startling. If allowed to continue every interest will feel it. Every foot of land will become of less value, every bushel of wheat, every bushel of corn, every pound of cotton will decline in value. On the other hand, if the Administration goes to work under the powers given it by existing laws, and earnestly tries to frame new laws for the consideration of the incoming Congress we shall see such an era of prosperity as was never before witnessed in this land.

THE SITUATION.

The fact is, that with the exception of some twenty millions deposited by the Treasury with National Banks, there is now "locked up," out of use and drawing no interest, in the United States Treasury, the sum of nearly -three hundred and forty million dollars-

One hundred millions of this vast sum the Treasury is obliged to keep under the laws as a reserve against United States notes.

Upwards of another hundred millions of this vast sum is retained to redeem the notes of National Banks failed or retiring circulation.

There is no law requiring the Treasury te keep this sum locked up. It is only required to redeem the notes as presented.

It will be years before the National Bank notes will all come in, and it is more than likely that 3 to 5 per cent. will never be presented.

Should this money lie idle all is some defect in the National Banking Law which should be corrected.

Why Congress should have put it in the power of the National Banks to use the Treasury in this way is a curious question.

Of the balance of this vast sum there is retained to meet past due Bonds, Disbursing Officer's Drafts, P. O. Department accounts and di vers appropriations, nearly seventy million dollars, just as if the Treasury was not receiving from the people every month upwards of twenty million dollars to meet all these things.

For all the above the Treasury Department may set up a valid excuse; but if so, the next Congress should see that something is done to utilize as large a part of this $270,000,000 as is consistent and safe.

Still remaining is $70,000,000 for which lock up there is no reason or law except the ruling or wishes of the Treasury Department.

It is well for the people to know how the Treasury stands.

The following figures are from the official statement issued by Secretary Fairchild, June 30. 1887.

$242,113,454.00 Thus leaving, with the exception of the little part in the National Gents' Furnishing Goods Banks, "LOCKED UP" in the Treasury . . . . . . . . . $337,455,395.40 With an outstanding debt of over one thousand millions, on which the people are taxed $44,638,466 yearly for interest payments, we would submit the simple question:

Is it just to the people to keep, year in and year out, $337,000,000 locked up in the Treasury, drawing no interest and doing no good?

Since the issue of our circular of June 16th-"What Use Shall the Government Make of its Surplus," -we have received hundreds of newspapers and communications from all parts of the land on this subject, all showing a deep interest and concern over the Treasury surplus. By far the larger majority think as we do, that the sooner the "rebellion" debt is cleared out, bought up, paid off and forgotten, the better for the whole country.

It would be far better for the country if $150,000,000 of this money was immediately used to reduce the interest bearing debt, even if the Government made nothing by it; but it cannot only reduce the debt but save millions in future interest payments by doing so.
